INTRODUCTION

In this e-book, I invite you to explore Diamond Alignment as a gateway to Wealth of Being ... a state of inner and outer Fulfillment in which well-being and the richness of life are experienced spiritually, mentally, emotionally, physically and materially with Grace and Ease. In the Diamond perspective, Connection and Alignment with the Divine Power or Diamond Self Within is the key to creating true Wealth of Being in our lives.

We live in a world that is more alive with possibility than ever before in history, yet it is easy to get lost in the confusion and chaos of such an accelerated world. While Divine Energy is within all of us, our fast-paced demanding lives often prevent us from finding the time – or even learning how – to Connect and Align with this Divine Power Within.

How do we Connect and Align with this unlimited potential and its Diamond Blueprint for our lives ... and soar in these exciting, yet challenging times?

How do we move beyond the horizontal trance of external conditioning and expectations, and live in the Highest Potential of our Soul's Inner Truth?

How do we tap into and maintain the Joy and Equanimity that comes from Aligning with the richness of our Diamond Self Within?

“Diamond Alignment, for me, has proven to be the answer to these questions. This Sacred Technology provides a simple, yet profound way to maintain Vertical Alignment with the Divine Power Within and create true Wealth of Being in our lives.”

A PERSONAL JOURNEY

At age 38, by all accounts, I looked like I had it all: excellent health, a long-term marriage, four beautiful children, a thriving multi-million dollar business, an active social network, prominence as a leader in my church and my community ... a picture of intelligence, beauty and endless energy with nothing but years of success under my belt. I thought I was invincible. I had no awareness of how much was being denied inside to keep up the façade, of what I now know, was my horizontal trance.

What I later recognized as my Soul's Call to Awaken occurred one night in January 1987, when my "perfect" life was completely dismantled in a two-minute "fall" on my kitchen floor – a total lapse of consciousness that came from out of the blue and ultimately changed the course of my life.

In the wake of my sudden collapse, I began experiencing debilitating anxiety attacks anytime I behaved like the "old Jacquie" superwoman. Unable to control the drastic shifts that were occurring with my normal indomitable willpower, I was terrified and sought medical help. My doctor, finding nothing wrong with me physically, prescribed daily alone time to "look within" instead of antidepressants to manage my anxiety.

Following his advice, I soon began to wake up to all the pain that I had been denying ... present day and past ... that was so well hidden by my social mask. In the months and years that followed, my "excruciatingly" perfect life began to unravel at all levels. All the prayers in my heart, the therapy I was now in and the inspirational talks in all the churches I went to ... did not relieve my pain.

This “Dark Night of the Soul” initiated a daily ritual of hikes into the hills behind my home where I called for Divine help in my life. The Divine answered. Each day, in those hills, I miraculously received total relief from my pain and was recharged with hope and energy to carry me through another day in my tumultuous world. It took several years for me to realize that I was receiving Divine Energy that was freeing me from my horizontal trance and bringing me into Vertical Alignment with my Soul’s Inner Power and Wisdom.

The phenomenon of what happened on those daily hikes was pure alchemy to me as I did not DO anything to make this happen. For the first time in my life, I was humble and open to receive help. This was a true contradiction for the “superwoman” persona that was identified with doing everything herself.

While these daily infusions of Energy allowed me to taste the Magic of Vertical Soul Alignment, I was unable to maintain this Alignment in the fire of my life. Once again I called to the Divine for the ability to abide in this Aligned state, as opposed to experiencing it only 45 minutes in my day.

Again my call was answered, and over the next many years, I received the Gift of what I now call Diamond Alignment ... the tool that Connects and Aligns me with the Divine or what I call my Diamond Self Within ... anytime ... anywhere. This Alignment has expanded my world, allowing me to create true Wealth of Being ... wealth that far surpasses anything I had experienced before. To this day, this Sacred Tool enables me to maintain Vertical Alignment with my Soul’s Diamond Blueprint, no matter what is going on around me.

In 1997, I was called to make the Gift of Diamond Alignment accessible to others who long for the Wealth of Being I speak of. The last 10 years of my life have been devoted to answering this call. It is now my greatest Joy to offer Diamond Alignment to individuals worldwide.

“I live in constant awe and humble gratitude for the never-ending miracles that this Sacred Technology continues to demonstrate in my life. What I know is ... it does not require believing or understanding or feeling or even knowing how ... because many times I do not. What I have learned over the years is that the only thing required to experience the Power of Diamond Alignment is to just say ‘Yes’.”

OUR DIAMOND BLUEPRINT

In the Diamond perspective, each of us, as a spark of the Divine, arrives on this Earth with a Divine Blueprint ... a Diamond Blueprint that is imprinted with our Soul's Highest Diamond Potential waiting to be awakened and actualized. This Invisible Blueprint of the Diamond Self Within is encoded within every cell and contains the unique talents and gifts which only we can express. Connection and Alignment with this Diamond Self ignites our inner Joy and fuels the creation of true Wealth of Being in our lives. Expressing our individual Diamond Blueprint not only brings us Fulfillment on a personal level, but also contributes to the Fulfillment of our world's Highest Diamond Potential.

In our fast-paced demanding world, staying Awake and consciously maintaining this Alignment with the Divine Plan for our lives is difficult. When we slip out of this Alignment into the horizontal trance, we can feel anxious, depressed and confused deep within, wondering "why am I here?" and "what is my purpose?" ... even believing that we have no purpose. This unrest can be occurring on the inner levels even when we may be experiencing outer success.

From the Diamond point of view, these inner questions and unrest are often signals that our Soul is Calling us to Awaken from the horizontal trance to the next level of our Soul's evolution and remember all that we truly are ... Diamonds at our core.

Just as every diamond gem is unique and must be mined from deep within the Earth before its brilliant light can shine, so too, our unique spark of the Divine and its Diamond Blueprint must be mined from deep within ourselves so that our true Diamond Nature can shine.

“Diamond Alignment has proven to be the tool that enables me to maintain Connection and Alignment with my Soul’s Diamond Blueprint and create true Wealth of Being in my life. It is simple, yet powerful, and available to all.”

HORIZONTAL TRANCE

Creating Wealth of Being by fulfilling our Soul's Highest Diamond Potential can be challenging in today's demanding world. When the inner whisper of the Soul is drowned out by the information overload streaming into us from the outside horizontal world, we can lose the Clarity and focus of our Soul's inner Knowing. We can become unbalanced and disconnected from our natural Joy. When this happens, life loses its color and passion. We then make choices without awareness and fall into unconscious living as if we are in a trance ... a horizontal trance.

The overlay of this trance can cloud Conscious Connection with the Divine Power Within and its Divine Blueprint for our lives. When we become disconnected from our Inner Truth in this way, no amount of outer success seems to bring us true inner Joy, Equanimity or Fulfillment.

It is important to stay compassionate with ourselves regarding this trance. Information and impressions from the external horizontal world have been influencing us at the unconscious level since we were born. As children, we do not have the discernment to consciously choose what is true for us and filter out what is not. As a result, we can find ourselves as adults living out (or reacting to) someone else's dream that may have no meaning or value for us. This disconnection from our Inner Truth can cause us to miss the opportunity to create true Wealth of Being in our lives.

When we are not aware that we have been living in this trance, we perceive ourselves and the world only through “horizontal” eyes. Many of our ideas and feelings about ourselves or life in general may not even be our own.

Physical and emotional pain can often be signs that we have slipped into the horizontal trance. In the Diamond viewpoint, when we experience these symptoms, it is important to remember not to judge ourselves. These conditions, feelings and thoughts are not the truth of who we are. They are simply what we are experiencing in our trance. We often seek relief from the tension, tiredness and toxicity of living in the trance by unconsciously seeking something to numb our pain and/or fill the void within us. This coping mechanism is normally short-lived and often leads to frustration and even addiction that robs us of our Freedom and our Health.

From the Diamond perspective, all things in life are seen as opportunities to evolve; therefore, even the trance is embraced as a gift that causes us to seek something higher. The uncomfortable feelings or symptoms of our trance are seen as our Soul’s Call to Awaken. When we say “Yes” to this Call, we have the opportunity to Awaken from our trance, turn within and come “home” into Vertical Alignment with the Soul ... the Diamond Self Within.

This Alignment ultimately frees us from the limitations of our trance and enables us to fulfill our Highest Diamond Potential and create true Wealth of Being in our lives.

“Diamond Alignment has proven to be the surest way for me to stay Aligned, Awake and Conscious ... free of the limitations of the trance. It is accessible to all.”

CALL TO AWAKEN

Imagine a world in which we are all Connected and Aligned with our Soul's Highest Purpose, saying "Yes" to living fulfilled, purposeful lives ... creating the Wealth of Being that we deserve. Being lost in the horizontal trance is one of the strongest conditions that keeps us from this unlimited possibility. When it is time for us to Awaken out of this limiting trance, our Soul sometimes calls us "home" to our Diamond Potential through physical and emotional pain.

These wake-up calls can come in many forms: Death of a loved one, illness, divorce, depression, anxiety attacks, loss of passion for life ... even children "acting out" can offer us the gift of Awakening from the horizontal trance. Global events, such as natural catastrophes, wars or terrorism, also present us with the possibility of moving beyond the complacency of the trance. As difficult as these events can be for us, both personally and collectively, we can use them as gifts to Awaken.

From the Diamond perspective, these events and circumstances are seen as opportunities to evolve the Soul and fulfill its Highest Potential. This shift in perception, beyond our everyday horizontal perspective, shifts us into Vertical Alignment with our Soul's perspective. In this Alignment, we don't judge ourselves or the world because things don't look good from a horizontal viewpoint.

Rather ... from the more expansive perspective of the Soul, we look deeper within and ask, "What can I learn from this?" This simple question moves us into a willingness to grow on a Soul level and opens us to something higher. It allows the Divine to work through us to free us from the limitations of our horizontal trance ... and Vertically Align us with the unlimited wealth and Diamond Potential that lies within us.

"Diamond Alignment is the reason my Soul Called me to Awaken. Offering this Sacred Technology to you is the expression of my Soul's Highest Diamond Potential."

VERTICAL ALIGNMENT

In Vertical Alignment, body, mind and Spirit are aligned. In this state we are more relaxed, receptive and able to hear our Soul's guidance. The expanded awareness that comes from this Alignment allows us to remember that we are larger than any circumstances around us. We are able to stay balanced and resourceful ... able to take inspired action no matter what challenges life brings us. We feel calm, safe and held, unaffected by the chaos of the horizontal trance.

There are many ways to come into this Alignment, such as the practice of yoga, meditation, prayer and more. Even simple walks in nature bring us back into Alignment with the Peace and Joy of the Divine. When we lean against a great tree that is grounded deep in the Earth, we can sense the Energy that gives it life flowing through its trunk. Nature is a perfect model of what we are but often forget ... physical vessels through which Divine Energy flows. This flow of Divine Energy is infinite and always available.

When we come into Vertical Alignment with this flow, we feel good again. We remember that we are not alone and do not have to do it all by ourselves. We find that we are able to handle our life responsibilities with greater Grace and Ease. We move from just surviving to thriving and feel more fulfilled from the inside out.

Vertical Alignment shifts us out of the confusion and overwhelm of our external world into the Clarity and Equanimity of our Diamond Nature Within. Our "Yes" to this Alignment makes us feel more alive, more passionate, freer to actualize our Diamond Blueprint and create true Wealth of Being in our lives. From this flow of Energy, we are able to deal with whatever comes our way.

"Diamond Alignment has proven to be the answer to maintaining this Vertical Alignment in the midst of my demanding world ... anytime, anywhere. It is simple, yet profound and is available to all."

WEALTH OF BEING

Wealth of Being, the gift of Diamond Alignment, is a phenomenon that occurs when the Magic of the Sacred is infused throughout our lives. It is a quality of life fulfillment that grows from the inside out ... from a state of such profound Peace, profound Sweetness and profound Expansion that it is not dependent on anything external. It arises from the undisturbed infinite peace that lies within us when we are in Conscious Connection with our True Self and the Energy of the Universe. Wealth of Being is seen as the ultimate gift of Diamond Alignment because Diamond Alignment Connects and Aligns us with the flow of this Divine Energy and the Diamond Self Within. In this Connection and Alignment, we experience wealth from the inside out ... with the richness of our inner world reflected in our outer life. This congruency and integrity gives us a deep sense of Wholeness.

Many today are living in either Spiritual Wealth or Material Wealth, but rarely enjoying both fully. I, myself, was living this split until my Soul Called me to Awaken into Wholeness by bridging my Spiritual and Earthly worlds. Until then, my life was compartmentalized ... I had hidden my Spiritual life (Soul) behind closed doors and was living as “wealthy woman of the world” in my outer life, without integrating the Spiritual throughout my daily Earth life in a practical way. This separation between my outer life and my inner world caused a great split in me that ultimately eroded my Joy and emotional health.

My Soul's intervention brought forth the Divine Gift of Diamond Alignment which ultimately enabled me to heal the split within me and merge both worlds. I am now able to enjoy wealth in the material world while expressing my Spiritual Consciousness and wealth in the Spiritual world, without giving up the enjoyment and Freedom that come with material wealth.

The synergy of my worlds, now integrated as one, frees me to experience a wealth of energy and capacity to thrive spiritually, mentally, emotionally, physically and materially in a state of Joy and Equanimity. I call this phenomenon true Wealth of Being. This expanded experience of wealth is beyond any wealth I had experienced before. Wealth of Being is living with Passion and Purpose, intense color, creativity, freedom and fun. It is a fullness and richness of life that is both challenging and amazingly gratifying. The Wealth of Being I speak of is the ultimate gift of Diamond Alignment.

“Diamond Alignment ignites my inner Joy daily and fuels the creation of true Wealth of Being in my life. It is simple and works powerfully when consistently activated. It’s here for all who desire a fuller life and deeper meaning in this world.”

WEALTH OF BEING is living life full-out ... being open to life ... free of our limiting patterns. It is the ability to see the highest possibility in any situation and make it happen. It is waking up every day, feeling good and being excited about living another day. It is living in Appreciation and Gratitude for the ordinary and the extraordinary ... acknowledging the Sacred in all. I believe the Joy and Magic of this Wealth of Being is within all of us as an ever-expanding possibility.
